LOS ANGELES, May 2.—Salt Lake 1, Vernon 3.

Jack Quinn walked out to the plate in the seventh inning, hit out a nice little single and scored Callahan, and then Simon came in on a couple of short hits and an opposition error, all of which operated to let Quinn know that he had won his own game without stretching the truth too far.

It was a good ball game at that. It was the shortest of the season so far on the local grounds and was marred by only one error, which, however, was inexpensive. In that same seventh frame Gislason had trouble picking up the ball and then when he did get it he put it in the wrong place, enabling Chadbourne to perch on first while Simon scored.

The Bees' solitary run came in the second inning, when Quinn singled to center, took second on an out and scored on an infield hit, which he shouldn't have been permitted to do if the ball had been fielded smartly. Dubuc, on the firing line for the visitors, pitched a good steady game and got a put-out and three assists against six by his teammates off Quinn, but clean support held down the totals to three and one of these at least was due to the only error in the game.

Nobody distinguished himself particularly today, although there were several pretty plays. The Tigers' third run was due to a triple by Mattick, who put the ball just inside the left field fence and back of a couple of Bees outfielders who were traveling as hard as they knew how, but couldn't quite make it in time.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—The Seals could not hit Standridge with men on bases and the Angels crawled out of the cellar over the forms of the league leaders. A pass to McKee and a three-bagger by Fitzgerald scored the only run for the Seals.

Bill Steen held that one run lead until the sixth, when Maggert and Gleichmann hit and Meusel scored both of them with a two-bagger. It was all off then.

The Angels scored three more in the seventh. Bassler being safe because McKee failed to tag him at the plate on Malsel's good throw. Steen was then derided and with two runners on and two out the first ball pitched by Spider Baum was cracked up

Ed Appelton.

Ed Appelton, the Brooklyn right-hander, who was recently released to Baltimore, became enraged when the club tried to hold up a check on him and returned to the club's office to take a poke at Charles Ebbets, Jr., the secretary. Appelton was fired for his misdoing and he has gone to his home in Texas, to brood over it. He is under suspension and doesn't know whether he'll report to Baltimore or not.

MACKMEN "FIND"

Ray Bates, who broke a world's record by driving five runs home in one inning, is the newest Philadelphia baseball hero.

Bates is 26 years old, stands 6 feet 2 inches high, weighs 180 pounds and is a native of Paterson, N. J. He played with the Vernon, Cal. team last year, having the fine batting average of .285 in 203 games. Bates once saw service with the Altoona Tri-State league team. He was with Cleveland in 1913, but was sent back to the minors.

The new batting sensation had two triples, a double and single. He drove six runs home and scored another himself. In the seventh inning Mack's find smote a triple and a double. These hits sent five runs across, which is a world's record.

OAKS SCORE OVER PORTLAND 4 TO 3

Pinch-Hitter Miller's Double in Sixth Is Move That Wins
for Oaks.

PORTLAND, May 2.—Pinch-hitter Miller's double in the sixth inning paved the way for a 4 to 3 victory for the Oaks in today's battle with the Beavers. Hack's terrific smash against the right field boards counted Murphy with the tying run, and it was only a matter of time until Del Howard's youngsters shoved over the winning tally.

Bill Fincher was touched up for ten hits, which the Oaks managed to bunch at times. After playing his ace, Howard sent Harry Krause against his former teammates and the Beavers went hitless and runless during the last four frames. Jack Roche contributed also to the downfall of the Mackmen.

Oakland started off with a tally in the second on Murphy's double and Roche's single. It looked as though Portland had the game sewed up in the fourth, when four clean hits off Goodbred netted a trio of runs. Borton's single, Williams' triple, Fisher's walk, Fincher's crack through short and Hollocher's single counting for three tallies.

Lane's walk with two down in the fifth, followed by Lee's double, gave Oakland another run. Lee was caught at the plate on Willie's fine return of Middleton's single.

Murphy's single, a force-out and Miller's swat tied the count in the seventh, and Middleton's single, Murphy's sacrifice and Sheehan's single put over the winning tally in the eighth.

Mensor was injured in batting practice and O'Mara filled in at second.

WASHINGTON MARKET TEAM TO CLASH WITH S. P.

Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., the Washington Market baseball team will enter the local lists for amateur honors by engaging in a contest at Glenwood park, with the Southern Pacific team. The Southern Pacifics won the opening game of the season last Sunday and Manager Roy Stone has kept them warmed up during the week just enough to be in good trim for their second contest.

The Washington Market team has been built around the nucleus of the Utamade nine of last year, players who have been in the game together for several seasons past, and who are capable of putting up a high class brand of amateur baseball. Among these are "Shorty" Williams, the scrappy centerfielder, who is assisting team; Vandy Layman, second baseman; Ed Painter, catcher; Fuller, the former high school athlete; Checketts, shortstop; Scott, one of the most dependable pitchers in this section of the state; Hill, Mumford, Roach, Tuttle, Thompson, White and others, well known members of other amateur teams that have been in the local limelight in past seasons.

They have been practicing for several weeks and are in excellent condition to start a regular game. The proceeds of Sunday's contest will be used for putting the grounds in better condition and for repairing the grandstand and fence. The use of the park has been donated by the city commission for amateur baseball this summer, with the understanding that all expenses be met by clubs officially recognized by the board. There are three of these, thus far organized, the Southern Pacific, Ogden Packing & Provision company and Washington Market.

CHICAGO, May 2.—World's records for hitless baseball were smashed at Weegman park this afternoon when the Cubs and Cincinnati Reds batted more than nine innings without a safe hit being registered on either side. In the tenth the Reds binged safely twice and an error by Williams allowed them to score the winning run.

Toney moved down the home team in his half of the tenth, finishing the game without a hit having been tallied against him. The score was 1 to 0.

Kopf, Red shortstop, singled in the tenth. Two were out when Williams dropped Chase's liner, Kopf going to third. Jim Thorpe laid the ball down the third base line and raced for first, while Kopf beat it for home. Vaughn pounced upon the ball, but Kopf had started with the crack of the bat and was well on his way to the plate. The speedy Redskin had covered the greater part of the distance to first base and it was too late to nail him. Kopf flashed over with the winning run.

Nearly eight years ago, May 10, 1909, Toney pitched and won a seventeen-inning no-hit game for Winchester against the Lexington (Ky.) team. It was this feat that brought him into the big league. Vaughn had the edge in the hurling in the first nine in-
